Attorney for Petitioner, Rebecca Lohman

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

OLD HISTORIC COURTHOUSE

In re the Matter of: REBECCA S. LOHMAN Petitioner, vs. COREY C. LOHMAN Respondent.	)	Case Number: FAMSB-2207189 DECLARATION OF REBECCA LOHMAN IN SUPPORT OF EX-PARTE REQUEST FOR ORDERS

I, Rebecca Lohman, declare that I am the Petitioner in this matter. If called upon to testify as to the facts set forth in this declaration, I could competently testify to them of my own personal knowledge except as to those facts stated upon information and belief and as to those facts I believe them to be true.

If required by the Court to offer my declaration in lieu of personal testimony, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §2209 and 2015.5, California Rules of Court, Reifler v. Superior Court, (1974) 39 Cal.App.3d 479, and In Re Marriage of Stevenot, (1984)154 Cal.App.3d 1051. I submit the following declaration:

The current court order states the Respondent has our daughter, Addison Lohman, every Monday, Thursday, and every other Friday from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., and Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This was stipulated to and ordered on March 27, 2023.

On March 1, 2024, the Respondent failed to return our daughter, Addison Lohman to me at 6:00 p.m., the Court-ordered exchange time. He failed to return my calls and only after repeatedly contacting him, did he respond in Talking Parents indicating that, "Addison is fine. You can go home" and, "Addison stated some disturbing things tonight. We had to call the police to ensure her safety."

After being unsuccessful in communicating with Mr. Lohman regarding what was happening, I called the Loma Linda Police Department. Deputy Rodriguez took an incident report, LL240610063. He also called the Respondent, encouraging him to return our daughter to comply with the custody orders. Mr. Lohman refused to comply, insinuated he had discussed the case with our daughter and that she said I was violating Court orders and was verbally aggressive with the deputy.

The Deputy informed me that at 4:30 p.m. that evening Respondent placed a call to the Rancho Cucamonga Police Department. The Deputy instructed me to call again the next day if Respondent did not return Addison at 2:00 p.m. and call in a welfare check if needed.

On March 2, 2024, I attempted again to ask Respondent to bring our daughter to the Court-ordered location for her return. Respondent responded, "We will inform you as to how the police want to proceed". I asked the Respondent if he could explain what that means and he responded, "No I legally don't have to". I then requested that he have the police contact me.

I tried again to contact Respondent to discuss exchanging Addison that day. He would read my messages on Talking Parents, but would not reply or pick up the phone when I called.

On March 2, 2024, after Respondent failed to show at 2:00 p.m., I made a police report with Deputy Velasco of the Loma Linda Police Department, for deprivation of custody, Report # 152400383. Deputy Velasco attempted to contact Respondent. The deputy informed me that Respondent essentially hung up on him and that he was unwilling to speak with me regarding return of my daughter. Deputy Velasco further informed me that I could call in a welfare check if I was worried about Addison's safety. He informed me the police report would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office Child Abduction Unit.

After repeated attempts to try to contact Respondent and his refusal of my request to speak with Addison, I called Rancho Cucamonga Sheriff's Department to conduct a welfare check at 4:30 p.m.

On March 3, 2024, Respondent again refused to return our daughter to me or pick up the phone when I called. At 12:32 p.m., he messaged me that, "Please remember. This is Addison decision to not speak with you. She said yesterday was the best day of her life. I'm just here to make sure she's happy and healthy and respect her wishes. Fights over. It's up to her. And per court documents. She trusts no one on your side including you. Addison and I didn't do this. You did." He also messaged that, "She told the deputy she doesn't feel safe with you." This is the same issue currently before the Court with a 730 occurring due to concerns that Respondent is talking to our daughter about the case.

The police have advised me they will not get our daughter from Respondent and bring her to my home without a Court order and hearing.

Our daughter, at Respondent's and her request, has not spent the night with Respondent in the last year. Our daughter has been cared for by myself, including medical, dental, homework, school events, riding lessons, and other activities for the last 4 years. I am the main parent in her life.

Addison has spent the past three days isolated from myself and my family. Respondent has refused to allow her to speak with me even on the Court-ordered, recorded Talking Parents line. Respondent just moved from Redlands to Rancho Cucamonga approximately one week ago. This last Friday was the first Friday he had our daughter for the afternoon since moving to his new apartment. Respondent never provided me with his new address. He has changed his phone number at least 4 times in the last 3 years, which our daughter has not memorized in case of an emergency.

Over the past few weeks, Respondent has become more hostile in his messages to me due to the fact that the San Diego County District Attorney has filed a criminal case against him for a violation of my parents' restraining order at Case Number CN451524.

Respondent has sent me numerous messages threatening to tell our daughter about the criminal case and that he could go to jail.

On February 8, 2024, Respondent messaged, "How should we tell Addison that I may go to jail for 6 months" and, "How should we prepare her for the worst? Re: Your mom". When I suggested that we wait to speak with Addison's therapist about this, he responded, "Sure. I won't lie to her. That's why she trusts me." He further explained that he already had told our daughter that he was in Court. See messages from February 8, 2024, attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Again on February 19, 2024, Respondent messaged me stating, "I am in court next Monday. I don't know how long it will take. If I am late to pick up Addison that day, what should I tell her that I was doing? Do you want me to tell her the truth? That while she was at the beach with family making memories that the family was filing a parks and recs police report." See attached messages from February 19, 2024, labeled as Exhibit B.

Again on February 22, 2024, Respondent messaged me threatening to tell our daughter about his criminal Court hearing.

On February 26, 2024, the Respondent messaged me the following, "And just for your information regarding Addison, everyone I've talked to believes that she needs to know the truth about the court. I'm dealing with right now and that I have no reason to protect your mom from the horrific things that she has done so I am going to tell Addison because I will not lie to her. There's two other court dates, and I'm not gonna lie to her about any of them, I refuse to lie to her to protect your mom". This was the same day as his most recent criminal Court hearing wherein my mother is the victim in the San Diego case.

Most recently, on March 1, 2024, at 12:13 p.m., Respondent messaged me, "Everyone that I've spoken to agrees that I should advise Addison as to the court trial that I'm currently in regarding your mom so that way she's not caught off guard if I have to go to jail it will help build her up." I responded to his threat with, "You just told me last week that you wouldn't do that to Addison because of her mental stability. Stop trying to hurt my family through Addison...." Notably, this is the same day that Respondent refused to return our daughter to my custody and is alleging that she does not feel safe with me.

Respondent has a history of harassing behavior in an effort to try to hurt me emotionally and professionally. He has repeatedly violated restraining orders which protect me, resulting in me having to make two police reports regarding the harassment as well as the extortion that I needed to pay him "what he was owed". My best friend and my parents both had to obtain restraining orders due to Respondent's frequent harassing, abusive and threatening behavior.

Respondent has willfully violated a host of Court orders ranging from simple compliance with the division of assets orders to the restraining order, and the locations and times for exchanges.

Respondent has no ties to this community as the majority of his family lives out of state. He has no job or source of income. I am unsure if he is compliant with his medication, given he is no longer on my health insurance, which is concerning, given his documented diagnosis of bipolar and depression. He has a history of being violent and aggressive with me.

Previously he came to my home and was standing in his truck screaming "my wife is a whore" repeatedly, to the point where the police had to be called and assist with calming him down and getting him to leave my neighborhood. When he does not get his way or is unmedicated, he is extremely aggressive. He has been aggressive towards me at our daughter's school during pick up and drop off times. Despite the restraining order, he would spend his mornings, waiting for me to drop off our daughter at school. He has also been aggressive at my attorney's office and security had been called.

Respondent's behavior is escalating and concerning. He is having our daughter call his girlfriend "Mama Jamie" which in and of itself is not an issue, until combined with the isolation and threats from above. He has told our daughter he will buy her a farm and they will move away.

Respondent has repeatedly told me that his girlfriends (the last three) will be our daughter's "new mom" and that she will eventually want nothing to do with me.

Since our December 26, 2023 Court hearing, Respondent continues to refer to me as "Rebecca" when speaking with our daughter on the Talking Parents recorded phone calls. Respondent has gone from insisting that his girlfriends will be our daughter's "new mom" to claiming that our daughter calls me "Rebecca" and denies that I am her mom.

He has repeatedly told me that he is discussing the Court case and the pending 730 evaluation with our daughter.

In a Talking Parent message, Respondent has acknowledged that he has spoken with our daughter about the pending 730 evaluation.

On January 30, 2024, Respondent stated "She can't wait for the 730. And sincerely thank u for paying for it....Enjoy your day. And court docs state that I hv been very active in changing your relationship dynamic. Read our messages. Duh. Enjoy this beautiful day."

When I expressed concerns that Respondent would discuss it with our daughter, his response was, "sorry, I am letting her know what the future holds so she's not caught off guard when she has to be involved with something like a 730 is it a secret?"

Again on February 12, 2024, Respondent expressed again how our daughter is looking forward to it, referring to the 730 evaluation. When I explained how difficult things must be for our daughter, as she is feeling torn between two people she loves, Respondent stated that she was not torn as she knew what she wanted and that the 730 evaluation would demonstrate that. He claims our daughter does not trust me, per the Court documents, and neither does Jamie, Vin, Gavin or himself. Those individuals are not related to our daughter, by marriage or by blood. I believe his goal is to manipulate our daughter to the point where she will not trust me and reject me as her parent.

It is not surprising that now Respondent is alleging that our daughter does not feel safe with me. I anticipate that Respondent has coached our daughter into making false allegations in an effort to obtain custody of her. I remain deeply concern that Respondent's hatred towards me has made him desperate.

I refer the Court's attention to the transcript attached to my supplemental declaration filed December 15, 2023, which was the same day that Respondent completed paperwork with the FCS indicating that I was emotionally abusive to our daughter and had an alcohol problem. In that phone call, Respondent failed to mention those concerns for our daughter's safety, and his primary focus was on asking me to pay him child support which he felt we could mediate.

On June 26, 2023, Respondent messaged me stating that I had until the following Friday or he would "will fight you in ways you have never seen in court to get justice."

On August 3, 2023, 2023, Respondent messaged me, "Make all of this right. Keep it out of court. Coparent. Give me what I'm owed..."

Throughout the court filings in this case, Respondent's motivation has been focused on harassing and abusing me, and obtaining money from me. As his prior efforts have failed to be successful, Respondent's attempts to accomplish this, have only escalated. The only options Respondent has left to obtain these objectives, is to have our daughter make false allegations of abuse, reject me as her mother and obtain custody of her.

On March 4, 2024, I communicated with our daughter's teacher to ensure she had been delivered to school. The teacher had informed that Respondent called her sick this date. I am very concerned that it is Mr. Lohman's intention to keep our daughter away from me even at the cost of her education. I am requesting immediate relief.

The Court authorized our daughter be involved in 3190 non-confidential counseling. Respondent has discharged his counsel. On February 16, 2024, Respondent approved counselor Moon. My attorney forwarded a stipulation to Mr. Lohman regarding his selection of Dr. Moon. I attach a copy for the Court's information and reference.

I believe it is imperative that our daughter receive therapeutic assistance in these times when she appears to be under substantial emotional pressure from her father, given his recent bizarre conduct.

I request the Court, based upon Mr. Lohman's selection of the therapist, make an order that her therapy commence immediately.

The stipulation for appointment of a 730 expert was submitted to the clerk's office on February 7, 2024. We are pending for the judge's signature to commence that evaluation.

I am requesting that until the matter can be heard, and for our daughter's protection that there be no visitation for Respondent until further order of the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge under the laws of the State of California.

Please select a therapist from the list you were sent and you can work with them to figure out how to handle any consequence you face. We shouldn't "prepare" her for things when you don't know what's going to happen.

You just told me last week that you wouldn' t do that to Addison because of her mental stability. Stop trying to hurt my family through Addison. If you end up having to face criminal consequences for willfully violating a restraining order, we can discuss it with Addison in a therapeutic setting once she starts therapy. Since you don' t have a criminal hearing for another month, there is no reason to worry Addison. We can get the help of her therapist once she starts.

Please have Addison call me. It' s been over 36 hours since she should have been returned to me.

Also, the court order requires that there shall be a minimum of one completed phone call a day to the other parent. Yesterday you violated that order by not picking up when I called or having Addison call me back.

Please have her call me so I can talk with her.

Corey, I'm not sure why you keep wanting to suggest that you should tell our daughter that you have a criminal court hearing. You keep trying to talk to me about you telling Addison that you have a criminal court case where you could go to jail for violating the law, each time I have told you my thoughts on how to handle it for now.

This is simple. You tell Addison that you have an appointment in Vista on Monday and if you run late, Mom will pick her up.
